DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 1-6 and 8-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Kitagawa et al, Japanese 2002069288 A.

Reference to Kitagawa et al as seen in the abstracts (Equivalent-Abstracts) teaches the combination of components required by applicants' claims for the same use as an adhesive. The component B of the reference and the component C, when it is a polyester are equivalent to A and B of the claims and are taught in overlapping proportions. The choice of polyester from among the 12 possibilities, as applicants have argued, may render anticipation not applicable, but is still clearly at least prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art absent evidence of unexpected results commensurate in scope to the claims. The claimed compositions are, therefore, rendered prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The properties for the components are reasonably presumed the same since they are the same chemical entities being used for the same purpose, absent evidence to the contrary. In re Fitzgerald Et Al, 205 USPQ 594 Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Bernard Lipman whose telephone number is 571-272-1105.
